PROPERTY OF FBI—THIS CONFIDENTIAL REPORT AND ITS CONTENTS ARE LOANED TO YOU BY THE FBI AND ARE NOT TO BE DISTRIBUTED OUTSIDE AGENCY TO WHICH LOANED.

The files of the Michigan Credit Association reflect that one IVAN BLASKO resides at 8124 Meadow in Van Dyke, Michigan (suburb of Detroit). His employment was listed as being with the Security Account Register Company, and on June 29, 1949, the National Bank of Detroit made inquiry of BLASKO concerning an FHA loan for $655.88.

On November 13, 1950, Mr. W. C. BINGHAM, Assistant Cashier in the Installoan Department, National Bank of Detroit, made available the loan file maintained on IVAN BLASKO. This file reflects that the above-mentioned loan was for a furnace and hot water heater for BLASKO's home, that he was employed as a machine operator and assembler with the Security Account Register Company at $250.00 a month. The file further indicated that BLASKO was born in 1886, his wife's name was given as ANTONIA, and his Social Security Number was shown as 364-12-8966. It also indicated that BLASKO was previously employed by the Hudson Motor Car Company in Detroit.

Employment records of the Security Account Register Company, No. 4725 Ellery Street, Detroit, contain no pertinent information regarding IVAN BLASKO. However, through ADAM SCHADE, an employee of the Security Account Register Company who resides at 8130 Meadow, Van Dyke, Michigan, and who is a neighbor of IVAN BLASKO, it was determined that IVAN BLASKO has a son, JOHN, who has been in New York City for approximately one year.

The employment record of IVAN BLASKO maintained by the Hudson Motor Company, Detroit, was made available by Mrs. MARY DEASON, Receptionist. This record reflects that IVAN BLASKO was employed there as a gun range pit cleaner from May 26, 1942, to June 23, 1943. His birthdate was listed as June 6, 1886, in Yugoslavia. It further indicated that he is a citizen of the United States, and his employment record with the Hudson Motor Company was satisfactory. His reason for resigning was to go into business for himself.

The files of the Detroit Office reflect the following information regarding IVAN BLASKO.

Informant Detroit T-1, of known reliability, stated on February 17, 1940, that I. BLASKO, Post Office Box 126, Base Line, Michigan (now called Van Dyke, Michigan) was a subscriber to Radnicki Glasnik (The Workers Voice), a Communist newspaper published weekly in the Croatian language in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

On November 3, 1947, Informant Detroit T-2, of known reliability, stated that on October 26, 1947, IVAN BLASKO attended the regular monthly meeting of the American Croatian National Council of Michigan held at 236 Victor Avenue, Highland Park, Michigan. Informant Detroit T-3, of known reliability, advised that the American Croatian National Council of Michigan is a Communistically inclined Yugoslav language group. Informant Detroit T-2 further stated that at this meeting IVAN BLASKO was elected as a delegate to attend a special conference of the American Slav Congress to be held November 23, 1947, in Detroit. The American Slav Congress has been cited by the Attorney General as falling within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

In the January 16, 1948 issue of Narodni Glasnik (a Communist newspaper published in the Croatian language in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania) an article appeared reflecting that the Detroit Chapter of the Croatian National Council held a rally on December 28, 1947. At this rally IVAN BLASKO contributed $5.00 to the Council's election campaign fund. In the June 2, 1948, issue of Narodni Glasnik an article appeared reflecting that on May 23, 1948, IVAN BLASKO contributed $5.00 to Narodni Glasnik.

In April, 1949, Informant Detroit T-4, of known reliability, stated that IVAN BLASKO was considered a countryman by IVAN YANKOVICH (delegate to the Second National American Slav Congress held at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on September 23 and 24, 1944) and a subscriber to the Daily Worker, 1948, and requested the Yugoslav Embassy to send material on current affairs on Yugoslavia to BLASKO.

On May 18, 1949, Informant Detroit T-5, of known reliability, stated that IVAN BLASKO was a subscriber to the Slavic American Magazine, published by the American Slav Congress.

Informants Detroit T-6, T-7 and T-8 stated on November 14, 1950, that they were not acquainted with IVAN BLASKO.

On November 17, 1950, Informant Detroit T-9, of known reliability, verified IVAN BLASKO's residence as 8124 Meadow, Van Dyke, Michigan, and advised that JOHN BLASKO, son of IVAN BLASKO, presently resides at 4305 - 66th Street, Woodside, Long Island, New York.

Informant Detroit T-11, of known reliability, advised in 1941 that MICHAEL VREVICH, also known as MIJO VREVIC, was born September 29, 1889, at Dubica, Yugoslavia, and emigrated to the United States from Bremen, Germany, April 10, 1907, arriving on the "SS Weimar." VREVICH filed Declaration of Intention to become a citizen on September 7, 1920, in the Wayne County

Circuit Court and obtained Certificate No. 2578134 on October 24, 1927, in the U. S. District Court at Detroit, Michigan. VREVICH is married to BARBARA, born December 4, 1900, at Petrinja, Yugoslavia, and they have a daughter, MARY, born December 3, 1926, at Detroit, Michigan. VREVICH's witnesses at the time of naturalization were BOGDAN MASICH, 1355 East Hancock, and ALOIS SAMER of 13460 Fleming. VREVICH is described as 5' 10" tall, 200 pounds, blue eyes, gray hair, poor eyesight, wears glasses.

Records of the City Election Commission show that VREVICH had resided at various addresses, the last one being 541 East Bethune Avenue in April, 1941.

According to the informant, VREVICH was active in the Croatian Insurance and Fraternal Association which holds its meetings at Kirby Hall, 1343 East Kirby Avenue, which was described by the informant as being a well known Communist meeting place.

Confidential records of the Fisher Body Corporation reflected that VREVICH was "reported" as an active Communist and that he had been employed in Body Engineering Plant No. 27-10 of the Fisher Body Company and had worked in various plants since 1916 and was at Plant No. 27 from 1938 until 1941 and was employed at that place at that time.

Informant Detroit T-12, of known reliability, advised that in June, 1949, MICHAEL VREVICH stated that he had joined a new organization known as "Friends of New Yugoslavia". He stated that he was attempting to get dates for the film "Zivjet Ce Obaj Narod" and advised that the Zajednicar (official organ of the Croatian Fraternal Union) was helping to publicize the film and stated that it would help the medical-aid drive for children in Yugoslavia.

Informant Detroit T-7, of known reliability, stated that MICHAEL VREVICH is considered in Yugoslav circles in Detroit as being a braggard and does considerable drinking.

Informants Detroit T-6, T-7, and T-8 advised that they had no knowledge of any activity of the subject organization known as "Friends of New Yugoslavia" in the Detroit area, at the present time.

ADMINISTRATIVE

Informant Detroit T-7 made available a translation of an article which appeared in the March 2, 1951 issue of Hrvatski Svijet (liberal newspaper published in New York) which advised of a proclamation for Detroit and vicinity. A summary of the article is being set out as follows:

"Temporary committee mailed out a proclamation to all our societies and individuals of Yugoslav origin in Detroit and vicinity in which it invited all societies and lodges to elect delegates for the conference to be held on Sunday, March 4th at 2:30 p.m. in the Rubinich Hall, 236 Victor Ave., Highland Park.

"The purpose of this movement of the temporary committee is to, first elect a permanent committee, and second, to determine what action is to be taken to help our people in the old country, who have been hit with the unrecalled draught last summer.

"In the proclamation it says that this action of helping to the people must be conducted on the basis of absolute independence of any politics, paying attention only to the humanitarian purpose for which this conference have been called.

"At the conference the speaker will be brother V. Vukelic, the editor of "Zajednicar."

"After the conference the movies in color will be shown, said movies being taken last summer during the visit to Yugoslavia by Mr. and Mrs. John Drazic, and also by Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dobiyash. The movies taken by Drazichs are from Bribir, Croatian seashore, Croatian Zagorje and Zagreb. The Dobiyashs were taken in Slovenia, parts of Croatia and Slavonia, and some in Opatija (Riviera, Adriatic seashore).

"The admission to the conference is free for everybody, while for the movies donations will be taken. The committee will serve homemade cakes, sandwiches and coffee."

Informant's comments are as follows:

"Attendance: Between 50 and 70 persons. Came late for the speech of said Mr. VUKELIC.

"Movies: Scenes from parts of the country as seen in the translation. In the pictures are mostly relatives of those who took them. No propaganda of any importance.

"Officers elected: BRANISLAV (WALTER) GREGORIC, President; OTTO DOBIYAS, Vice President; Mrs. DOBIYASH (wife of Vice President), Secretary; Mrs. GREGORIC (wife of the President), Assistant Secretary; JOSEPH ZELEZNJAK, Treasurer.

"No collection, outside the donations for the movies, has been taken. It was decided to hold larger gathering or meeting in the future and invite some prominent American speaker. The name of Mr. (JAMES) SWINEHART, correspondent of Detroit News has been brought as a speaker at said contemplated meeting. However, it was decided to leave this matter to the officers to decide upon.

"Have noticed three so called Cominformists: ANTON ~~NARIC~~, JOSEPH ~~KRAINA~~ and JOHN ~~ELIMAC~~. No incidents."

MICHAEL VREVIC was in attendance at this meeting.

Background information on IVAN BLASKO was obtained by SA FRANK J. KNOTH and reported by him in a report dated November 28, 1950, at Detroit, Michigan, entitled "TANJUG (TELEGRAPHIC AGENCY NEW YUGOSLAVIA)" under the character Internal Security - YU.

DETAILS: AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS:

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

Yugoslav-American National Committee of Chicago

"Novi List" issue of March 15, 1950, page 2, columns 3, 4, and 5, sets forth the aims and objectives of the "Friends of New Yugoslavia Club" of Chicago and states that this Club will popularize and spread "Novi List", which it considers its official organ.

Regarding "Novi List" it is to be noted that this is a bi-weekly newspaper published in New York City in the Croatian and Slovene languages. This paper was described by Confidential Informant T-1, of known reliability, as a pro-TITO propaganda organ, which is being edited in accordance with the directives and policies of the official representatives of the TITO Government in this country. This Informant stated on December 8, 1949, that according to ANNA KRASNA, editor of the Slovenian Section of "Novi List", no information, report, or article could be published in this paper without the prior approval of some official of "Tanjug", official Yugoslav news agency in the United States, which agency is registered with the Foreign Agents Registration Section of the Department of Justice.

Confidential Informant T-2, of known reliability, advised on December 20, 1950, that the Yugoslav-American National Committee was a committee within the Friends of New Yugoslavia, which was organized for the purpose of making arrangements for a successful celebration in Chicago on December 10, 1950, in honor of the Seventh anniversary of the Proclamation of the Republic of Yugoslavia.

"Novi List" issue of November 16, 1950, page 1, columns 6 and 7, contains an article captioned, "Yugoslavia Needs Urgent Help. Appeal of the Chicago Committee to all Yugoslavs Throughout the United States and Canada." This article was datelined at Chicago, Illinois, and reported that the Yugoslav-American National Committee in Chicago had at its meeting, held in October 1950, among other matters discussed on the agenda, considered the important question of help to the people in Yugoslavia. It was stated that individual and collective help was now necessary and the article stated "We, the Yugoslav-American National Committee of Chicago appeal to all of you in the United States and Canada to help our people in Yugoslavia all you can as they are suffering on account of drought." It was stated that the money or food should be sent directly to the Yugoslav Red Cross, which organization would distribute to those who needed it the most. The article also mentioned that "two of our organizations in Chicago (Slavonia Club and Adriatic Guard) have already sent considerable money to the Yugoslav Red Cross to help in this relief drive, which was publicly acknowledged by the Yugoslav press." This article was set forth over the following, "For the Yugoslav-American National Committee, President, MARTIN MARETIC; Vice-President, FRANK ALESH; Secretary, FRANK OSTRIC; Treasurer, MARTIN CUCIBASIC."

Chicago File 100-21626

Regarding the Slavonia Club, Confidential Informant T-3, of known reliability, advised on February 15, 1949, that this is a local Chicago Croatian group organized principally for the purpose of paying small death benefit payments to its members and also for general social purposes. It meets at Kordovan's Hall, 18th and Racine, Chicago, Illinois, and its membership presently includes a number of Yugoslav Communists, both pro-TITO and pro-STALIN.

It is to be noted from the above-mentioned article of "Novi List" that it referred to the Slavonia Club as one of "our organizations in Chicago", indicating its pro-TITO character at that time.

Regarding the Adriatic Guard, Confidential Informant T-4, of known reliability, advised on March 3, 1951, that this is a Yugoslav Club originally formed to house and educate orphans in the section of Yugoslavia bordering on the Adriatic Sea, and which organization is at the present time under the control and domination of its pro-TITO element, but Informant advised that there is a distinct possibility that the anti-Communist element within this Club will regain control.

FRANK<sup>V</sup>ALESH

"Novi List" issue of October 12, 1949, page 2, columns 2, 3, and 4, contained an article reporting that on September 12, 1949, the Central Committee of the Chicago Branches of the Slovenian-American National Council and delegates from societies and clubs supporting this organization, had adopted a resolution condemning the stand which Soviet Russia is taking against New Yugoslavia. ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION OF
FEDERATED NATIONAL REPUBLIC OF
YUGOSLAVIA-December 10, 1950,
Chicago, Illinois

Confidential Informant T-6, of known reliability, advised on January 17, 1951, that the Seventh Anniversary Celebration of the Federated National Republic of Yugoslavia was held December 10, 1950, at the American Hall, 1438 West 18th Street, Chicago, Illinois, and was sponsored by the Yugoslav-American National Committee of Chicago.

It is to be noted that Confidential Informant T-2 advised on December 20, 1950, that this Committee is a committee within the Friends of New Yugoslavia, which was formed for the specific purpose of arranging this annual Yugoslav Celebration.

Confidential Informant T-6 further advised on January 17, 1951, that the Chairman of the Yugoslav-American National Committee, GEORGE GUGIC, made a short welcoming address at the Celebration, welcoming the Yugoslav Ambassador, VLADIMIR ~~POPOVIC~~, and also the Yugoslav Consul General of Chicago, VLADIMIR M. ~~VUKMIROVIC~~. GUGIC stated that any proceeds obtained as a result of this affair would be donated to their brothers and sisters in Yugoslavia. 7

MR. BELAN ~~BUCA~~ sang several Yugoslavian and American songs and one BORIS ~~ZLATIC~~ played several classical pieces on the violin. A short speech was made by MILAN ~~MEDVESEK~~, described by Informant as one of the officials of "Prosveta", the official organ of the Slovene National Benefit Society, a fraternal society with headquarters in Chicago.

Consul General of Chicago, V. M. ~~VUKMIROVIC~~, made a speech in which he appealed to the audience to give their mother country every possible aid.

According to the Informant, the last speaker was the Yugoslav Ambassador, VLADIMIR POPOVIC, who told the audience that he came from Washington, D. C. to congratulate the local committee for 7 arranging the Anniversary Celebration and he assured the audience that their old homeland was successfully struggling to improve economically, industrially, and agriculturally, but that the Yugoslav Government had been hindered by the drought which his country had experienced last summer. POPOVIC appealed to the audience for help for their brothers and sisters and urged them to be proud of their American citizenship and to be loyal to the United States of America. POPOVIC expressed the thanks of his country (Yugoslavia) to the President of the United States, and to all Americans for the help they were rendering to his country.

A resolution was adopted which was to be sent to President TRUMAN thanking him for extending aid to the Yugoslavian people.

"Novi List" issue of January 9, 1951, page 4, columns 1-4, contains an article by GEORGE GUGICH, entitled, "Celebration of Yugoslav Independence Day in Chicago." This article was a report on the celebration held in Chicago on December 10, 1950, the celebration of Yugoslav Independence Day. GUGICH reported that the program was opened by himself and that he had welcomed the audience to this celebration.

GUGICH stated that the Consul General of Yugoslavia, VUKMIROVIC, spoke concerning the life and events in the old country, describing the hardships of the Yugoslav people which they had experienced in fighting for their national independence. The article above reflected that telegrams were sent to Marshal TITO in which the Americans of Yugoslav descent congratulated the people of Yugoslavia on their heroic stand in building for themselves a better and happier future, and for establishing friendly relations between the United States of America and Yugoslavia.

A telegram of greeting was also sent to President TRUMAN for his humanitarian act in recommending aid to the Yugoslav people who are facing possible starvation.

GEORGE GUGICH

Confidential Informant T-7, of known reliability, advised on December 12, 1950, that GEORGE GUGICH has long been active in Croatian Communist circles on the far South Side of Chicago, and recently was expelled from the Communist Party, at which time he became active with the pro-TITO faction. He made a trip to Yugoslavia approximately a year ago and upon his return became active in connection with pro-TITO activities. This Informant also reported that based on articles that have appeared in "Novi List" it appears that GUGICH heads up a South Side Section of Friends of New Yugoslavia.

SOUTH SIDE SECTION
FRIENDS OF NEW YUGOSLAVIA

It is to be noted, as above stated, that T-7 on December 12, 1950, reported that it appeared that GUGICH heads up a South Side Section of Friends of New Yugoslavia.

T-7 was recontacted on March 8, 1951, and he advised that he had received no information from any source reflecting activity on the part of Friends of New Yugoslavia Club in recent months, and he likewise had received no additional information which would indicate that a South Side Branch of Friends of New Yugoslavia with GEORGE GUGICH as its head, was now in existence or was active.

Confidential Informant T-8, of known reliability, advised on March 13, 1951, that the Chicago Club of Friends of New Yugoslavia has not engaged in any activities in Chicago during the past several weeks and he has observed no reference to this Club in the various issues of "Novi List."

It is to be noted that "Novi List" is the official organ of Friends of New Yugoslavia.

T-8 further reported that he had not received any indication that the Friends of New Yugoslavia had a South Chicago Branch or Club, and he stated that he believed GEORGE GUGICH was connected with the Chicago Club of Friends of New Yugoslavia at this time.

Chicago File 100-21626

Confidential Informant T-9, of known reliability, advised on March 12, 1951, that he knew of no activities in the past several weeks on the part of the Chicago Club of the Friends of New Yugoslavia. Informant stated that he had heard nothing concerning the establishment of a South Chicago Branch of the Friends of New Yugoslavia.

Confidential Informant T-12 advised on March 13, 1951, that the Club Friends of New Yugoslavia at Chicago has been inactive during the past couple of months and has engaged in no activity, to his knowledge. The Informant also stated that the newspaper, "Novi List", which usually carries information on the activities of the Friends of New Yugoslavia has contained no information in recent weeks concerning the affairs of this group.

 FROM : SAC, SEATTLE
 SUBJECT: <sup>a</sup> FRIENDS OF NEW YUGOSLAVIA
 INTERNAL SECURITY - YU

DATE: April 5, 1951

874 - 1

There is quoted herewith an article published in the "Pacific Tribune", Vancouver, B. C., Canada, February 23, 1951, headlined "Titoite Agents Plan Campaign With FBI Aid." It is noted that the article alleges that a paid FBI Agent has been appointed head of the New York Branch of the Friends of New Yugoslavia and that his appointment was approved by TITO.

"WASHINGTON

"A vast propaganda and spy campaign among American citizens of Yugoslav origin - and American Slavs in general - is being prepared by the FBI and Titoite agents in the United States to combat the growing anti-Titoite feeling among American Yugoslavs which has become more marked in the recent period.

"The centre of this movement is to be the 'Friends of New Yugoslavia' organization with branches in New York, Chicago and San Francisco.

"Recruiting of members of the Yugoslav colony in the U.S. is well under way and the 'Friends of New Yugoslavia' will officially engage in distributing literature and in the showing of films which glorify Titoite Yugoslavia.

"On the 'unofficial' side of the organization's activities some light has been shed by information received from sources close to the Yugoslav Embassy in Washington.

"The 'Friends of New Yugoslavia,' these sources reveal, has been set up under the direct guidance and in closest cooperation with the FBI with the aim of compiling information on Yugoslavs in America with progressive opinions.

"Explaining the FBI's 'friendly interest' in the organization, these sources say that the 'Friends of New Yugoslavia' will compile and deliver to the American counterintelligence service all available information on immigrants from the People's Democracies and on Americans of Slav origin.

"A paid FBI agent has been appointed head of the New York branch and his appointment approved by TITO himself.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Reference is made to your memorandum of March 27, 1951 regarding the above captioned subject. You requested to be advised as to whether any violations of the Foreign Agents Registration Act of 1938, as amended, are indicated in the attached reports and as to any further investigation desired.

Although the reports contained information indicating that the subject organization engaged in political propaganda favorable to the Tito regime in Yugoslavia, there is no evidence that it is acting pursuant to an agreement with that Government or is subsidized by that Government. In addition, the reports contain no evidence that the subject organization is collecting information for a foreign principal or is soliciting funds from or for a foreign principal. Furthermore, the activities of the subject do not, on the basis of the information in the reports, constitute a holding out within the meaning of Section 1(c)(3) of the Act, as the organization does not purport to be an agent of the Tito regime.

As the activities of the subject do not come within any of the definitions of an agent of a foreign principal in Sections 1(c)(1)-(5) of the Act, registration cannot be solicited on the basis of the facts now available.

The Bureau is requested, therefore, to conduct further investigation to determine whether the activities set out in the investigative reports are being sponsored by the Yugoslav Government or by any subdivision thereof and whether funds are being solicited for or from any foreign principal.

PURPOSE:

To identify subject organization, allegedly FBI sponsored, according to an article entitled "Titoite Agents Plan Campaign with FBI Aid", in the "Pacific Tribune" dated 2-23-51 at Vancouver, B. C., an organ of the Labor Progressive Party in Canada (West Coast) which is the Communist Party in Canada.

BACKGROUND:

Subject organization is currently under investigation by the Bureau and the following information has been developed to date:

It was founded 12-13-49 in NYC by a group of American Yugoslavs to propagandize in the U.S. for the Tito regime of Yugoslavia. It receives the full support of Yugoslav government officials here and they frequently appear as guest speakers at its functions. Its headquarters are in New York City where the total membership is said to be 280. There are branches in several other cities having large Yugoslav populations. Several of its officers including Nikola Telesmanic and members visited Yugoslavia in 1950 at the invitation and expense of that government. Nikola Telesmanic, according to latest reports, is chairman (leader) of the FNY in New York, and a director of "Novi List" (described below.) He is definitely not a "paid FBI agent," as alleged by the Pacific Tribune in the article referred to. [ ] has described Telesmanic as a confirmed Marxist who was one of the original stockholders in the Yugoslav-American Home in N.Y.C. which [ ] described as a gathering place for numerous Communist and Communist controlled organizations.

FNY especially seeks support and subscriptions for "Novi List," a pro-Tito newspaper published in NYC in the Croatian and Slovene languages. It otherwise propagandizes for Tito by means of various social functions and exhibition of Yugoslav films.

Copies of all reports are furnished currently to the Department.

The pro-Cominform supporters among the Yugoslavs in the U.S. and elsewhere have, of course, been militant in their efforts to combat the influence of subject organization. The attached article is but another example of this and is typical of the attack in the C.P.U.S.A. press carried on against the Tito supporters.

The allegations that the Friends of New Yugoslavia is FBI sponsored and that it is headed by a paid FBI agent, approved by Tito, are, of course, untrue and obviously intended to smear both the Bureau and the F.N.Y., showing particularly that the F.N.Y. is connected with the "reactionary FBI."

RECOMMENDATION:

(1) No action is recommended except to advise New York of this information for inclusion in its next report.

PETER SENGIA

San Francisco T-1, of known reliability, advised PETER SENGIA, President of the Friends of New Yugoslavia of Oakland, California ordered the films "Dalmatian Fishermen" and "Unconquered People" from the Yugoslavian Information Center in NYC through someone named LEVI. These were shown in Oakland under the auspices of the Friends of New Yugoslavia on April 16, 1950. T-1 said that the exhibition made no money for the benefit of the orphaned children of Yugoslavia as intended because the expenses consumed the profits. T-1 said that the films had been furnished free by the Information Center.

At the same affair, San Francisco T-2, of known reliability, advised that SENGIA made a speech urging the audience to subscribe to the Yugoslavian language newspaper "NOVI LIST." T-1 pointed out that the Friends of New Yugoslavia of Oakland were not joined with any national group bearing the same name and as a matter of fact the organization was not now even functioning under that name, it having been succeeded by the American Yugoslavian Relief Committee of Oakland. T-1 stated that the Yugoslavian Consul General in San Francisco, RAFO IVANCEVIC, had just a few days previously inquired of PETER SENGIA concerning the minutes and bi-laws of subject organization. IVANCEVIC told SENGIA that he should have bi-laws and a more formal organization. Furthermore, for all practical purposes the organization was no longer in existence anyway.

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

Showing of Yugoslav Motion Pictures

"Novi List" issue of March 15, 1950, Page 2, Columns 3, 4 and 5, reports that the Friends of New Yugoslavia club of Chicago will popularize and spread "Novi List", which it considers its official organ.

Regarding "Novi List", it is to be noted that this is a biweekly newspaper published in New York City in the Croatian and Slovene languages. This paper is described by Confidential Informant T-1, of known reliability, as a pro-Tito propaganda organ, which is being edited in accordance with the directives and policies of the Tito Government in this country. This informant stated on December 8, 1949, that according to ANNA KRASNA, editor of the Slovenian Section of "Novi List", no information, report or article could be published in this paper without the prior approval of some official of "Tanjug", official Yugoslav news agency in the United States, which agency is registered with the Foreign Agents Registration Section of the Department of Justice.

Confidential Informant T-2, of known reliability, advised on April 16, 1951, that the "Novi List" issue of March 22, 1951, Page 2, Column 6, contained an article captioned "Yugoslav Films Will Be Shown in Chicago, Illinois". This article reflected that the Chicago club of the FNY would show the newest film from Yugoslavia at the Croatian National Sokol Home at 1903 South Racine Avenue on Saturday, April 14, 1951. The article indicated that the net proceeds from the showing of this film would go to the relief for the people suffering from the drought in Yugoslavia. An invitation was extended to all the Yugoslav people in Chicago and vicinity, as well as members of various Yugoslav societies and fraternal clubs, in order that they might have the opportunity to see these pictures and at the same time aid one of the most humanitarian of causes. The article also reported that the FNY in Chicago, up to that time, had sent a great deal of help to the people in Yugoslavia, including $200 worth of school supplies and $110 worth of clothing, all of which had been sent to Zagreb (Yugoslavia) for the Red Cross. According to the article the film would be shown at eight in the evening, and the admission price would be fifty cents per person. This article was signed by FRANK LACKOVIC.

It is to be noted that the Communist Party is an organization declared subversive by the Attorney General under Executive Order 9835.

Confidential Informant T-3, of known reliability, advised on October 10, 1945, that FRANK LACKOVIC, 1826 South Carpenter, Chicago, Illinois, was a registered member of the Croatian Branch, Lower West Section, Communist Party. This informant described LACKOVIC as a charter member of the Communist Party.

Confidential Informant T-4, of known reliability, advised on March 28, 1950, that FRANK LACKOVIC, whom he knows has long been active with the "Narodni Glasnik" newspaper, and other Yugoslavian Communist groups, was present at a meeting on February 24, 1950, in the Croatian National Sokol Home, 19th and Racine Avenues, Chicago, when the new pro-Tito club "Friends of New Yugoslavia" was formed. The informant stated that at this meeting LACKOVIC spoke and denounced the Stalin faction. According to this informant, LACKOVIC had previously supported the pro-Stalin faction. Informant also advised that it was rumored that LACKOVIC is lessening his support of either the pro-Stalin or pro-Tito factions. The informant related that some pressure in this connection may be being placed on him by his children, who object to his support of the political factions of either Stalin or Tito. According to the informant, it is also rumored that LACKOVIC'S wife, BARBARA, has also become less active in Yugoslavian affairs.

Confidential Informant T-5, of known reliability, advised on December 20, 1950, that LACKOVIC has long been associated with the "Narodni Glasnik", until recently, when he left the pro-Stalin faction and became active in the FNY, which he helped to organize and he is currently active in the pro-Tito faction.

It is to be noted that "Narodni Glasnik", according to Confidential Informant T-5, who furnished the information on December 12, 1950, is a Croatian weekly newspaper, published in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, which continues to follow the Communist Party line.

Friends of New Yugoslavia Club of Chicago Banquet, May 20, 1951

Confidential Informant T-2 advised that the "Novi List" issue of May 10, 1951, Page 4, Column 1, contained an announcement by the main committee of the FNY club of Chicago. This announcement stated that this club was sponsoring a banquet on May 20, 1951, in the large and modern Rupcich Hall on 106th Street and Indianapolis Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois, which is located on U. S. Highways 12, 20 and 41. The article further reflected that the banquet would be held for the benefit of the Yugoslav homeland, where it was said people are suffering because of last year's drought. All friends of the Yugoslav nation were invited to come to this banquet in order, it was stated, that the greatest amount of help might be sent to Yugoslavia. The announcement stated, however, that there would be no collection at the banquet. The banquet was scheduled to start at seven in the evening, and the main speaker was to be the Consul General of Yugoslavia at Chicago, Illinois, Mr. VLADIMIR VUKMIROVIC.

Confidential Informant T-6, of unknown reliability, but who is in a position to furnish information regarding meetings held at Rupcich Hall, advised on May 18, 1951, that Mr. GEORGE GUGICH, Telephone Number Saginaw 1-7451, was the person who had made the reservation at Rupcich Hall for the banquet to be held on May 20, 1951, under the auspices of FNY club of Chicago.

The Chicago Telephone Directory for April, 1951, lists GEORGE GUGICH, 10642 South Ewing Avenue, Chicago, Telephone Number Saginaw 1-7451.

Confidential Informant T-7, of known reliability, advised that GEORGE GUGICH, 10642 Ewing Street, Chicago, was a Communist Party member and belonged to the Tenth Ward Club of the Communist Party in 1944. The informant described GUGICH as a white male and a barber by trade.

It is to be noted that Confidential Informant T-8, of known reliability, advised on December 12, 1950, that GEORGE GUGICH has been associated with the FNY club of Chicago.

T-8 also advised on December 12, 1950, that GEORGE GUGIC has long been active in Croatian Communist circles on the far South Side of Chicago, and recently was expelled from the Communist Party at which time he became active with the pro-Tito faction among the Yugoslavs. Informant reported, also, that GUGIC made a trip to Yugoslavia approximately a year previously and upon his return became very active in connection with pro-Tito activities.

Confidential Informant T-6 advised on May 22, 1951, that sixty-four people were in attendance at the FNY banquet held in Rupcich Hall on May 20, 1951. Informant also advised that approximately twenty-five per cent of those present were women and that nearly all those persons attending were over fifty years of age. T-6 stated also that he heard a few of the younger persons present, probably ten in number, talking about the banquet and from their comments he gathered they were very much bored with the entire affair. Informant stated that a speech was made by the Yugoslav Consul General of Chicago, and speeches were also made by GEORGE GUGIC and other members of the gathering. Informant stated that tickets to the banquet cost $3.00 and that the charge made for the dinner by the management of Rupcich Hall was $2.00, which would leave a profit of $1.00 per person as the net proceeds for this affair. Informant stated that no collection was taken up at this meeting and he understood that the entire proceeds were to be sent to Yugoslavia for the underprivileged children of that country.

Confidential Informant T-9, of unknown reliability, but who holds a responsible position and is well informed regarding Yugoslav activities on the South Side of Chicago, advised on June 27, 1951, that he attended the FNY club of Chicago banquet, which was held on May 20, 1951, at Rupcich Hall, Chicago, Illinois. The informant estimated that between seventy and eighty people were in attendance at this affair, which he advised lasted from 7:00 P. M., to 11:00 P. M. The informant stated that the ticket to the banquet cost $3.00 and that no collection was taken up at this affair. Informant added he had learned that about seventy or eighty dollars was netted as a result of giving the banquet. According to the informant, VLADIMIR VUKMIROVIC, the Yugoslav Consul General in Chicago, was the principal speaker and was accompanied to this affair by his three Vice-Consuls, NIKOLA KOZOL, JOSEPH MORAVEC and IVAN JOZIC.

NIKOLA KOZOL

The informant added that these men did not address the gathering.

The informant stated that VLADIMIR VUKMIROVIC, in the first part of his talk, which the informant estimated lasted about twenty minutes, praised the FNY club of Chicago and its friends for the assistance which they had furnished to the needy people of Yugoslavia. In the second phase of his talk VUKMIROVIC reportedly expressed his regret that Yugoslavia had been misled into friendship with Russia in the first place and he told his listeners he was very happy to see the friendly and co-operative relationship which now exists between the United States and the Yugoslav Government. VUKMIROVIC added he wished this relationship would continue and grow. VUKMIROVIC, in his speech, praised the United States and the people of the United States for the generous assistance given to Yugoslavia and her drought-stricken people. Informant stated that GEORGE GUGIC was the chairman of the affair and introduced VUKMIROVIC and likewise called upon other persons present, all of whom spoke informally, indicating their pleasure at being present and the fact that they were happy to be of some help to the people of Yugoslavia. GUGIC also reportedly, during the course of the evening, expressed his pleasure at being able to help the drought-stricken people of Yugoslavia.

MILAN ~~BRIGA~~, one of the members of the FNY club, who was present, was also called upon to say a few words and he allegedly urged those present to subscribe to and support the newspaper "Novi List".

The informant stated that VUKMIROVIC and his assistant consuls, remained at the banquet throughout the entire evening and mingled with the people on an informal basis.

The informant learned that JOZIC and VUKMIROVIC attended to the details of arranging this breakfast and inviting the guests. Informant stated that the Yugoslav Consulate officials were only inviting the important people and that Mr. VUKMIROVIC, himself, stated in this connection that they were inviting only "those who are working for our things".

According to information furnished by Confidential Informant T-11, of known reliability, on June 2, 1951, the Yugoslav Consulate officials at Chicago, had prepared a list of persons who were under consideration to receive invitations to attend the breakfast at the Palmer House, Chicago, Illinois, on May 13, 1951, in honor of Dr. ALES BEBLER. DETAILS:

ELLEN WILLIAMS ERVIN was interviewed on June 19, 1951, by the reporting Agent and SA ALLAN M. OPPEN. She stated that GOLDY GELDMAN first contacted her last Fall and exhibited an interest in her experiences in Yugoslavia. GOLDY GELDMAN explained that she had obtained ERVIN's name through the Friends of New Yugoslavia, a New York organization. ERVIN saw GOLDY and her husband, MAX GELDMAN, on a few other occasions, and it became obvious to her that they were members of the Socialist Workers Party. She gained the impression that they wanted her to say that Yugoslavia was not run by a dictator and that conditions there were becoming ideal. During these contacts, no further mention was made of the F.N.Y., but the GELDMANS did say they hoped to visit Yugoslavia some day in apparently the distant future.

ERVIN had no other knowledge regarding the F. N. Y. ERVIN recalled that GOLDIE GELDMAN mentioned that she was trying to make contacts among people of Yugoslavia extraction by going through the phone book looking for Yugoslav names. ELLEN ERVIN believed this was not accomplished because of the similarities of such names with those from other Slavic countries.

HELEN MORRIS, of Berwyn, Pa., who visited Yugoslavia with ERVIN, was with her during most of the contacts with the GELDMANs; however, ERVIN did not believe she would have much, if any, additional information.

Confidential Informant T-1, of unknown reliability, but who has frequently visited Yugoslav Ships docking in Philadelphia, stated on May 16, 1951, that he had no knowledge of the Friends of New Yugoslavia.

Confidential Informant T-2, of unknown reliability, but who has a social acquaintance with former King Peter of Yugoslavia, when contacted on May 7, 1951, advised that he had no knowledge of the Friends of New Yugoslavia.

Confidential Informant T-3, of known reliability, stated on May 8, 1951, that a stockholders meeting of Novi List, Inc., was held on February 17, 1951, at New York City. Novi List, Inc. of New York City, was identified as the publisher of "Novi List," a Croatian language newspaper and "Glas Naroda," a Slovene language newspaper, both Pro-Tito papers. At this meeting a sponsoring committee was selected for the purpose of reaching a cross section of all Yugoslav Americans and thereby spreading information about good will toward the present regime of Marshal TITO in Yugoslavia. This committee included some persons who had not indicated their availability for the purpose, but few, if any, refusals were expected because only known sympathizers were being approached. The members of this committee chosen for Eastern Pennsylvania were:

GENERAL ACTIVITIES

Support of "Novi List" by Friends of New Yugoslavia
Clubs of Chicago

Confidential Informant T-1, of known reliability, advised on August 29, 1951 that "Novi List" issue of May 22, 1951, page 2, columns 1 and 2, contained an article by ALEXANDER JURICH, the President of the newspaper "Novi List." JURICH gave his report on the aims, activities and future plans for "Novi List" and made the following recommendations in order that the paper's campaign quota might be fulfilled:

1. At all meetings of Friends of New Yugoslavia clubs, lodges and other organizations, the subject of the "Novi List" newspaper campaign for subscribers should always be included on the agenda of every meeting and everyone should take part in the discussion on how to secure new subscribers and contributions.
2. Every club, lodge or other organization should hold picnics during the Summer months for the benefit of "Novi List."
3. Every subscriber, reader and friend of "Novi List" should get at least one new subscriber.

The article also reflected that "Novi List" would give prizes to those persons who obtained fifty, forty and thirty subscribers during the campaign.

Confidential Informant T-2, of unknown reliability who has a broad knowledge of Yugoslavian activities in the Chicago area, on July 23, 1951 advised that the Friends of New Yugoslavia clubs of Chicago held a picnic in Chicago on Sunday July 22, 1951 and that money obtained over and above the expenses of the picnic was donated by the Friends of New Yugoslavia clubs to the newspaper "Novi List." The details concerning this picnic will be set out subsequently in this report.

It is to be noted that Confidential Informant T-1 advised on April 14, 1950 that the new pro-TITO club called "Friends of New Yugoslavia" was formed in Chicago in February, 1950 and has for its official organ the New Yugoslavian newspaper "Novi List" which the informant advised is pro-TITO in policy.

Regarding "Novi List" it is to be noted that this bi-weekly newspaper published in New York City in the Croatian and Slovenian languages was described by Confidential Informant T-3, of known reliability, on December 8, 1949 as a pro-TITO propaganda organ which is being edited in accordance with the direction and policy of the TITO government in this country. This informant advised also that according to ANNA KRASNA, Editor of the Slovenian section of the "Novi List", no information, report or article, could be published in this paper without the prior approval of "Tanjug," official Yugoslavian news agency in the United States, which agency is registered with the Foreign Agents Registration, Section of the Department of Justice.

Showing Yugoslav Motion Pictures

Confidential Informant T-1 advised on September 19, 1951 that the "Novi List" issue of August 28, 1951, page 3, columns 1 and 2, reflects that motion picture films concerning Yugoslavia were shown to the Friends of New Yugoslavia clubs of Chicago on July 22, 1951 during the holding of a picnic by this club on that date. These films were reportedly shown by MILAN BIGA.

The details of the holding of this picnic will be set forth later in this report.

This article further reflected that reservations for the picnic could be made in advance by contacting GEORGE GUGICH, 10524 Ewing Avenue, described as the President of the South Chicago club of Friends of

New Yugoslavia or M. ANDRIJASEVICH, 9656 Escanaba Avenue, described as secretary of the South Chicago club, Friends of New Yugoslavia. It was suggested that those from the West Side of Chicago should contact MILAN MARICH, 1417 Cullerton Avenue, Chicago, Illinois described as secretary of the West Side club Friends of New Yugoslavia.

Confidential Informant T-1 on September 19, 1951 advised that "Novi List" issue of July 31, 1951, page 2, columns 3 and 4, reflected that the club Friends of New Yugoslavia had sent $34 to the "Novi List" newspaper, which amount was forwarded as a contribution from this club and which amount represented the net proceeds from the family picnic held by this club on July 22, 1951. This article appeared over the name of M. ANDRIASEVICH.

T-1 also advised on September 19, 1951 that "Novi List" issue of August 28, 1951, page 3, columns 1 and 2, contained a report on the part of M. ANDRIASEVICH relative to the family picnic which had been arranged by the two clubs of the Friends of New Yugoslavia in Chicago. This report reflected that those persons present at the picnic were treated to a special attraction in that MILAN BIGA put on a showing of motion picture films concerning Yugoslavia, which films were shown in the basement hall of FRANK PUHARICH. The article reported also that several members of the Yugoslav Consulate Staff in Chicago were present at this picnic but the names of these representatives were not given. This article stated also that a surplus of $34 which was derived from this picnic had been sent to the fund of "Novi List" by the decision of the two clubs of Friends of New Yugoslavia.

Confidential Informant T-2 advised on July 23, 1951 that he had attended the Friends of New Yugoslavia picnic held on Sunday, July 22, 1951 and he advised that the following persons were present: GEORGE GUGICH, FRANK LACKOVIC, MILAN MARICH, MILAN BIGA, IVAN JOZIC, described as Vice Counselor of the Yugoslav Consulate General's office of Chicago, and Professor JOHN SVETINA.

Confidential Informant T-1 advised on September 19, 1951 that Professor JOHN A. SVETINA is a prominent Yugoslavian Attorney in Chicago who is likewise employed as a Professor at Loyola University. According to the informant SVETINA is very active in religious circles and is of the Catholic faith and very definitely anti-Communist in his political views.

Informant advised that another Yugoslav Consulate official from the Chicago office was also present at this picnic but informant did not know the name of this individual.

Informant advised that the picnic was primarily social in nature and that the expenses were amply covered by the admission price and what little was left over after expenses were paid was donated to the newspaper "Novi List." Informant stated that at the picnic the Yugoslav Consulate representatives were plugging for all-out aid by individuals to Yugoslavia. According to the informant these Yugoslavian representatives were urging that contributions be made to aid Yugoslavia even though this might mean that persons of Yugoslavian extraction in this country might have to cut down on other contribution they were in the habit of making.

Farewell Dinner to GEORGE GUGICH, August 26, 1951

Confidential Informant T-4, of known reliability, advised on August 28, 1951 that "Novi List" issue of August 21, 1951, page 3, columns 2 and 3, contained an announcement that the Friends of New Yugoslavia clubs of Chicago would sponsor a farewell dinner on Sunday, August 26, 1951 at MARION GUC's Hall, 3234 East 92nd Street, Chicago, Illinois. This dinner was to be a farewell party for GEORGE GUGICH who was moving to California.

T-1 advised on September 19, 1951 that "Novi List" issue of August 30, 1951, page 2, column 3, contained a report concerning the holding of the farewell dinner on August 26, 1951 in honor of GEORGE GUGICH.

The article reflected that among speakers at this farewell dinner was IVAN JOZIC, representing the Yugoslav Consulate office in Chicago. According to the article JOZIC spoke about the reasons which brought on the break between the U. S. S. R. and Yugoslavia and it was reported that he convinced the audience that only economic interests were the cause for the rift. The article indicated that JOZIC explained how the U. S. S. R. and Great Britain had made a pact during World War II to divide equally the exploitations of Yugoslavia's resources without consulting the people of Yugoslavia. JOZIC stated that when the people of Yugoslavia and their leaders learned about this pact they refused to recognize it. JOZIC also allegedly called attention to the lies which are being spread concerning Yugoslavia and her leaders and indicated that if people wanted to help the people in Yugoslavia the best way would be to work for friendly relations between Yugoslavia and the United States.

Toastmaster ANDRIJASEVICH reportedly spoke in praise of GEORGE GUGICH and the work done by him during the past thirty years among the Yugoslavian people. ANDRIJASEVICH reportedly stated that he had worked closely with GEORGE GUGICH during this time. According to the article GEORGE GUGICH likewise spoke and in his talk stated that he had always had the interest of his countrymen at heart and attempted to refute attacks made against him by certain correspondents of the "Narodni Glasnik" to the effect that he had been paid by the Yugoslavian Government for his trip to Yugoslavia which GUGICH denied stating that he had paid the $800 for this trip out of his own pocket.

It is to be noted that Confidential Informant T-5, of known reliability, advised on May 25, 1949 that the "Narodni Glasnik" is a Communist dominated Croatian newspaper published in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

In the course of the interview he stated that several years back he and other individuals born in the Istrian Peninsula had formed the United Istrian American Societies in New York City with the idea of uniting all Istrian organizations in the New York area into a committee for social and charitable purposes and also to present a united front for freedom of the Istrian Peninsula from Italian rule. SINTICH advised that sometime in 1941, the United Istrian American Societies gradually fell apart because several organizations represented dropped out alleging that a number of members were Communists. SINTICH stated that he was definitely opposed to Communism.

Regarding his own background, he advised that he was born in Istria which was then part of Austria-Hungary. ~~VLADO POPOVIC~~

~~SECRET~~

(U) ~~Conf~~ report dated April 21, 1951, Confidential Informant T-1 reported regarding a concert given on April 8, 1951 at the Yugoslav American Home under the sponsorship of subject organization. This affair was attended by the Yugoslav Ambassador ~~VLADO POPOVIC~~ and prominent members of the Yugoslav Consulate in New York City. The total attendance was approximately 320 people. Following the rendition of a number of songs by ZINKA KUNCILIC, a Yugoslav opera singer, NIKOLA ~~TELESMANIC~~, Chairman of subject organization, gave a speech in which he stressed the significance of March 27th which is being celebrated in Yugoslavia as the day on which Marshal TITO officially assumed power. ~~TELESMANIC~~ further spoke briefly of the heroic struggle of the partisans against the Nazi Army of occupation emphasizing the part played by TITO and the Yugoslav Communist Party.

Following a brief address by ~~JOHN BOSTANCIC~~ editor of "Novi List", LJUBA ~~DRNDIC~~, Director of the official Yugoslav Information Center in New York City, delivered the main address. ~~DRNDIC~~ in his speech stated that the present adverse economic conditions in Yugoslavia are partly due to the recent drought and partly to the economic blockade imposed on Yugoslavia by Soviet Russia and its satellites. These difficulties he stated would be overcome by Marshal TITO and the Yugoslav Government.

~~DRNDIC~~ severely criticized those Yugoslav Americans who had sided with the Cominform forces against the Tito Regime. He concluded his speech with an appeal to all present to work for an ever deepening friendship between Yugoslavia and this country.

(U) ~~Conf~~ Confidential Informant T-1 advised that subject organization held a meeting on May 25, 1951 at the Yugoslav American Home, 405 West 41st Street, New York City. ~~(X)~~

~~ANTON X T-1 DCS~~

✓ This meeting was attended by approximately sixty persons whom the informant characterized as sympathizers of the Regime of Marshal TITO and the Yugoslav Communist Party. Captain ~~ANTON~~ RADOS was the main speaker and his speech was entirely devoted to an appeal to help increase the circulation of "Novi List".

~~SECRET~~

The informant had previously reported that ANTON RADOS of 200 West 15th Street, New York City, is a former Yugoslav sea captain and a naturalized American citizen. The informant stated that although RADOS, to his knowledge, was never a member of the Communist Party, USA, he did belong to the Yugoslav Seamen's Club in New York City which the informant described as a Communist controlled organization. Following the TITO-Cominform split RADOS sided with the pro-Tito element and was reported by the informant to have attended all major pro-Tito meetings and affairs held in New York City.

(U) At the aforementioned meeting of subject organization on May 25, 1951, as reported by Confidential Informant T-1, ~~ALEXANDER~~ JURIC gave a speech in which he requested and received unanimous approval of a resolution requesting President TRUMAN to effect the extradition to Yugoslavia of ANDRIJA ~~ARTUKOVIC~~ for prosecution as a war criminal. The informant pointed out that an official request for the extradition of ARTUKOVIC was recently presented by the Yugoslav Government to the State Department and is at present under consideration.

Regarding ALEXANDER JURIC, the informant has previously advised that this individual is the owner of the New Starlight Restaurant in New York City and an ardent pro-Tito Communist. He is active in the affairs of subject organization as well as of "Novi List", pro-Tito propaganda periodical published in New York City.

FINANCES

(U) On April 7, 1951, the informant reported that NIKOLA GRUBELIC, Treasurer of subject organization, had advised him that this organization maintains no bank account inasmuch as it has no funds to speak of. GRUBELIC further told the informant that the organization has no offices nor does it issue publications or circulars and that announcements regarding membership meetings, etc. appear in "Novi List" to which a majority of the members subscribe. As a result the organization has no overhead expenses to meet.

~~SECRET~~

(U) The informant expressed the belief that the affairs of the club are conducted in a rather informal manner by NIKOLA TELESMANIC and NIKOLA GRUBELIC from their homes; he further stated that up to the present no membership dues have been collected and that the only expense incurred by the Club consists of rent payments to the Yugoslav American Home whenever a room is rented in this building for a specific social function or meeting. Any funds required for this purpose are raised by admission fees and voluntary contributions at the meeting itself.

YUGOSLAV GOVERNMENT CONNECTIONS

(U) The informant stated on September 19, 1951 that there exists the closest cooperation between subject organization and the official representatives of the Yugoslav Government in this country as evidenced by the fact that representatives of the Yugoslav Consulate General or of the Yugoslav Embassy regularly attend all major functions as guests of honor or as guest speakers. The informant pointed out that these meetings invariably deal with some phase of Yugoslav domestic or foreign policies and that they serve as propaganda media for the Tito Regime. The informant further said that these meetings are undoubtedly planned and conducted in full accordance with the desires of the Yugoslav Government representatives.

~~SECRET~~

The informant stated that nothing had come to his attention recently indicating that subject organization at present maintains contacts with the Socialist Workers Party. He pointed out, however, that ALEXANDER JURIC has in the past acted as one of the principal liaison men between Yugoslav pro-Tito groups and the Socialist Workers Party.

SECURITY INFORMATION - CONFIDENTIAL

The Rand-McNally Pocket Map and Guide shows two towns named Fredericksburg, one a town of about 1,500 in Lebanon County, and another without a post office, in Crawford County (mail received through Meadville, Pa.).

At Luzerne, Pa.

Special Agent FRED T. HOULIHAN conducted the following investigation on October 16, 1951:

None of the persons contacted at Luzerne had information regarding the subject organization or a ~~MARIJA BORIC~~ residing there. However, the following persons knew ~~MARY BORICH~~ as the wife of NICHOLAS BORICH, 538 Slocum Street, Swoyersville, Pa. (Swoyersville receives its mail at Luzerne, Pa.) -

Chief of Police UBAN, Swoyersville, Pa.
Chief of Police JOHN ADAMS, Luzerne, Pa.
LEO WILLIAMS, Superintendent of Post Office,
Luzerne, Pa.

Confidential Informant T-6, of unknown reliability, but one who has been familiar with persons of Croatian extraction in the area, advised that MARIJA is the Croatian word for MARY, and that the letter "H" is frequently added or omitted from a Croatian name. T-6 knew ~~NICHOLAS BORICH~~ as an openly identified Communist leader in the 1930's. However, NICHOLAS BORICH was described as comparatively quiet and inactive as a Communist lately, although still a member of the Croatian Fraternal Union.

Mrs Confidential Informant T-7 advised that he has known ~~NICHOLAS BORICH~~ since 1931, and stated that NICHOLAS is presently employed at the Harry E. colliery at Swoyersville as a miner or laborer and that his wife, MARY, about fifty or fifty-one years of age, is unemployed and has no children. T-7 stated that NICHOLAS was Secretary of Lodge No. 16 of the Croatian Fraternal Union, which has its headquarters in Pittsburgh, Pa., and that he was elected trustee of the CFU at a convention held in Hollywood, California September, 1951. MARY BORICH was stated to be Secretary of the Junior Lodge No. 152 of the Croatian Fraternal Union.

~~SECURITY INFORMATION - CONFIDENTIAL~~

PH 100-35448

According to T-7, a number of persons split from Croatian Lodge 16 at Luzerne because they felt that the leaders of the lodge were sympathetic to Communism. T-7 stated he had never heard of the Friends of New Yugoslavia or the Club of American Yugoslav Friendship, but that MARY BORICH prior to 1947 or 1948 had distributed a magazine published by the late LOUIS ADAMIC, which was a pro-TITO publication, at meetings of Lodge No. 16 of the Croatian Fraternal Union. T-7 stated that NICHOLAS BORICH was a close friend of LOUIS ADAMIC seven years ago. NICHOLAS BORICH admitted being a member of the International Workers Order about that time.

The International Workers Order has been designated by the Attorney General as coming within the purview of Executive Order 9835.

M. BORICH of 538 Slocum Street, Luzerne, Pa. was listed as a subscriber to "Slobodna Rec", a Serbian Communist line newspaper, on October 1, 1945, according to a subscription list filed with the Pittsburgh Post Office on that date.

(T-8)

MARY BORICH was on the membership list of the Croatian Fraternal Union Lodge No. 16 in 1944 and, with her husband, was identified by the informant as a person believed to be a Communist in the lodge.

(T-9, of unknown reliability,
2/25/44, to SE C. ETHERIDGE)

MARY BORICH, born 1906, was identified as a member of IWO Lodge No. 4003 at Hazleton, Pa.

of New Yugoslavia Club in Chicago for the purpose of arranging an annual Yugoslav celebration which is now directed toward the support of the pro-Tito Regime and in opposition to the existing pro-Stalin faction among the Yugoslavs.

According to this informant, Yugoslav anniversary celebrations had been held in Chicago, Illinois in previous years but the first of these celebrations held under the sponsorship of the Yugoslav-American National Committee of Chicago, Illinois was held in American Hall, 1438 West 18th Street, Chicago, Illinois, on Sunday December 10, 1950 and the celebration was entirely pro-Tito. In its make up, the principal speakers being ~~VLA~~ DIMIR POPOVIC, Yugoslav Ambassador to the United States, and ~~VLA~~ DIMIR M. VUKMIROVIC, Yugoslav Consul General at Chicago, Illinois.

T-2, of known reliability, advised on October 1, 1951 that the annual Yugoslav celebration commemorating the anniversary of the formation of the Yugoslav Republic would be held in November, 1951 in Chicago, Illinois. The informant further stated that this celebration is again being sponsored this year by the pro-Tito faction among the Yugoslavs in the name of a Committee called the Yugoslav-American National Committee of Chicago which he understood was a part of the Friends of New Yugoslavia Club of Chicago.

T-3, of known reliability, advised on October 18, 1951 that the "Novi List" issue of September 18, 1951, Page 4, Column 6, contained an announcement by ~~M.~~ MARICH, a member of the Publicity Committee of the Yugoslav-American Committee of Chicago. In this article it was announced to all organizations, clubs, and Friends of New Yugoslavia that arrangements had been made for a big celebration marking the 8th anniversary of the Peoples Republic of Yugoslavia. This celebration was scheduled to be held on November 25, 1951 in the American Hall, Chicago, Illinois, at 2:00 P.M.

This article also pointed out that this day should be a great public demonstration of power and purpose on the part of Yugoslav immigrants, especially in Chicago, and that consequently everyone should be present at the celebration. In this connection, all Yugoslav societies were kindly requested to refrain from holding any meetings or other affairs on that date.

CHARACTERIZATION OF PARTICIPANTS

MILAN MARICH

With reference to ~~MILAN MARICH~~, who is identical with M. MARICH of the Publicity Committee of the Yugoslav-American National Committee according to T-2, it is to be noted that T-3 advised on April 14, 1950 that "Novi List," issue of March 15, 1950, page 2, columns 3, 4 and 5, reflected that MILAN MARICH is secretary of the Friends of New Yugoslavia Club in Chicago.

✓ T-2 advised on January 24, 1949 that MILAN MARICH was formerly very active in the organization "American Association for ~~the~~ Reconstruction in Yugoslavia, Inc.," which is now defunct, described by the informant as a completely Communist dominated organization. According to this informant, MARICH is friendly with many of the leading Yugoslav-Communists on the south side of Chicago.

✓ The American Association for ~~the~~ Reconstruction in Yugoslavia, Inc. is an organization declared Communist by the Attorney General under Executive Order 9835.

T-1 advised on September 8, 1950 that he is personally acquainted with MILAN MARICH who is an officer of the Friends of New Yugoslavia Club and who lives at 1417 Cullerton Avenue, Chicago, and informant stated that based on his, MARICH's, former close association with known Communists and his former continuous support of the Communist objectives, he has the reputation of being a Communist. Informant advised, however, that MARICH has now broken with the Stalin faction and is presently active in behalf of the pro-Tito faction among Chicago Yugoslavs.

T-4, of known reliability, advised on November 27, 1951 that he attended the 8th annual celebration of the Federated National Republic of Yugoslavia. According to informant, this celebration was held at American Hall, 1438 West 18th Street, Chicago, Illinois, at 3:00 P.M. on Sunday, November 25, 1951, and was sponsored by the Yugoslav-American National Committee, Chicago, Illinois. The informant stated that the attendance at the celebration was between 300 and 400 persons.

Cgo File 100-21626

The program of the celebration started shortly after 3:30 P.M. and consisted of eleven numbers. The celebration was opened by a short welcoming address which was given by Mr. MILAN ~~MEDVESEK~~ in which he especially greeted the Consul General of Chicago, VLADIMIR M. VUKMIROVIC, and also MILOŠ BUCAR, who was present in the capacity of the official representative of the Yugoslav Embassy in Washington, D. C.

Following the introductory remarks of Mr. MEDVESEK, the Jadran Tamburitza Orchestra played the Star Spangled Banner and the Yugoslav National hymn "O Slavs---!"

The next speaker was Mr. MARTIN ~~MARETIC~~, President of the Yugoslav-American National Committee in Chicago. According to the informant, MARETIC gave a short speech in which he said that "the day of November 29 is again approaching us - the day of the people of the Federal National Republic of Yugoslavia." MARETIC stated that "this is a day of remembrance because the 29th day of November, 1943, was the day when the anti-Fascist National Liberation front at its second meeting laid the foundation for a new federated democratic Yugoslavia and it was on November 29, 1945 when the Constitutional Assembly declared Yugoslavia to be a Republic." MARETIC further stated that "the main reason that we are sponsoring this celebration is to show our solidarity with our brothers in the old country and also to help our brothers and sisters in every way we can to achieve a better life."

MARETIC also announced that they were donating the net proceeds from this celebration toward the assistance of their brothers in Yugoslavia, namely the needy children in that country. MARETIC then appealed to his fellow countrymen present to give the Committee a helping hand and to help their relatives individually by sending them CARE packages.

According to the informant, the next number on the program was to be songs by DIMITRI ~~BELAN (BOCA)~~ who, according to the informant, is a well known singer among American Yugoslavs. The chairman of the celebration, however, announced that Mr. BELAN (BOCA) was ill and could not appear on the program. In place of BELAN (BOCA), his pianist who was to accompany him, a Miss ELIZABETH ~~BUCINIC~~, played several classical pieces on the piano.

This was followed by a speech by Miss ~~PATRICIA~~ MORTON who was a Chicago official of the organization CARE. Informant reported that Miss MORTON spoke on the valuable work which the CARE organization is doing in Yugoslavia toward helping needy families who were suffering greatly due to the drought in Yugoslavia the previous year. Miss MORTON reportedly stated that CARE had received hundreds of letters of thanks from all parts of Yugoslavia in which the people had expressed their gratitude to the Americans of Yugoslav origin and to the American public in general as well as to the American Government itself for all the help which it is giving to Yugoslavia. Miss MORTON also appealed to all those present not to forget their kin in the old country and to send them as many CARE packages as they were able.

The informant reported that the next number on the program was acrobatic and ballet dancing by ~~SHIRLEY~~ PAZUL. Following Miss PAZUL, the KOVICH sisters sang and played on the concertina several Yugoslav folk songs.

Following the ~~KOVICH~~ sisters, the Jadran Tamburitza Orchestra sang and played several numbers.

The next number on the program was songs by the Singing Society called "Preseren", which is a Slovenian singing club which sang several Slovenian and Croatian folk songs.

The next item on the program was a speech by VLADIMIR M. VUKMIROVIC, Consul General for Yugoslavia at Chicago, Illinois, who, after his introduction by the chairman, was given a great round of applause. Mr. VUKMIROVIC first thanked the committee for affording him the opportunity to be present at the celebration which gave him a chance to meet so many of his countrymen. VUKMIROVIC told those persons present that by their presence at that affair, they showed their devotion to the country of their birth and childhood and that they further showed this devotion by helping their brothers, sisters and parents with CARE packages and in other ways. VUKMIROVIC thanked all present on behalf of his government and appealed to them to continue their aid to the heroic people of Yugoslavia whom he declared are doing everything possible to rebuild their country and enjoy a more happy and peaceful life which he indicated was their main objective. VUKMIROVIC concluded his short address by wishing all Americans of Yugoslav origin in Chicago and vicinity, the best of everything in their life and efforts.

The concluding number on the program was an address by Mr. MILOŠ ~~BUCAR~~, Yugoslav Embassy Counselor from Washington, D. C., who was introduced by the chairman MILAN MEDVESEK as a "real representative of the people of Yugoslavia, not in uniform and in gala dress, but in plain clothes just as we are dressed."

Informant reported that BUCAR first expressed his thanks to the committee for the invitation extended by the committee to the Yugoslav Ambassador to come to Chicago but BUCAR said it was impossible for the Ambassador to attend this glorious celebration. BUCAR conveyed to the audience, greetings from the Ambassador and the Yugoslav Government and expressed thanks for everything they were doing to help rebuild their mother country and for the help which was being given to the people in their present predicament due to the drought last year in Yugoslavia from which that country had suffered greatly. BUCAR indicated that the help of Americans of Yugoslav origin was a Godsend. BUCAR told his audience "to be loyal to your adopted country, the United States of America."

According to the informant, BUCAR spoke for approximately thirty minutes concerning the rebuilding of homes, factories, railroads, institutions, schools, and the economic life of the people of Yugoslavia. BUCAR emphasized the fact that the rebuilding of Yugoslavia was possible with the help of Yugoslav people abroad and the friendly nations in Western Europe and America.

BUCAR repudiated the "smear campaign against Yugoslavia and its friends from the Cominform countries," and he stated that "his country is building and preparing for war with the help of the United States and other western countries." He further stated "everyone knows that Yugoslavia wants peaceful development in its economic life and if she is strengthening her defense, it is done for peace and for war." He continued "countries dominated by Soviet Russia accuse Yugoslavia of preparations for war with the aid of the United States but that they are the ones who are preparing for war with their peace propaganda. Yugoslavia is not a satellite of the United States, as the enemies of Yugoslavia claim. On the contrary, the United States does not tell the Yugoslav Government what it can and should do."

BUCAR asserted that "the United States of America is protecting its interests in Yugoslavia, as any other friendly country would and does do, but America is not interfering in the internal affairs of my country." BUCAR added that "the Yugoslav Government and its people are very grateful to the United States for their economic and financial aid." BUCAR concluded his address by stating that "Yugoslavia is concentrating all its efforts for peaceful rebuilding but will be ready to repulse all attacks from its neighbors with the help of friendly nations. America proved its real friendship by giving Yugoslavia all necessary aid, which was not forthcoming from those who wanted to dictate to my country the ways of peaceful developments in all phases of our life. This the heroic people of Yugoslavia could not accept. We believe that Yugoslavia and the United States will be real friendly countries. May God help both of them. Glorious honor to the Republic of Yugoslavia and the great wholehearted United States of America!"
